RE: 1967-68 HANDBOOK OF INFORMATION

Here is your copy of the new Handbook of Information! We trust it will serve you well as a source of information with respect to our General Conference.

The format has been revised this year. Part of the reason is that we now have a "blanket" tax exemption ruling from Internal Revenue Service which includes all member churches in the U.S. Since copies of this handbook will be filed with IRS, it was important that we clarify the relationship of the General Conference to MCC and other charitable and non-charitable agencies listed.

Because of major changes, you should familiarize yourself with this book during more leisurely moments. As editor I want to pay tribute to a number of staff people who have worked hard to bring you this information. Following are the major sections:

1. Directory of Churches (pp. 5-10). Includes all General Conference-related churches. Be sure to read the introductory paragraph on page five.
2. Directory of Ministers (pp. 11-20). Note the new format for the Canadian section. See introductory paragraph on page eleven.
3. Executive Organization (pp. 21-22). Lists Executive Committee, Program Committee, Schowalter Foundation trustees, and the 1967 budget.
4. Board of Business Administration (pp. 23-24). Includes committees, Central Office staff, and Church Extension Services.
5. Board of Christian Service (pp. 25-34). Includes committees, VS and relief personnel, homes and hospitals, and MCC.
6. Board of Education & Publication (pp. 35-42). Includes committees, publications, bookstores, YPU, and conference-related schools.
7. Board of Missions (pp. 43-47). Includes committees, CIM board, missionaries (active and retired), and WMA.
8. District Conferences (pp. 48-53). All listings are for 1967-68 except the Western District which does not meet until October.
9. Statistics. Membership and finances are given on pp. 55-70. Christian education statistics are listed on pp. 71-75.

We will appreciate receiving your comments and corrections about the Handbook. Please let us know what you would like changed for next year.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. L. Friesen
Conference Treasurer and Office Manager

FOREWORD

1. What are we doing?
2. Where are we engaged in witness?
3. Who has special responsibilities in our programs?

Orlando Waltner, Executive Secretary

INTRODUCTION

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MENNONITE CHURCH is an entity composed of member congregations in North and South America. It is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas in the U.S.A. Churches have also united to form a Conference of Mennonites in Canada and into several district conferences based largely on geographical location. The delegate body meets triennially which is elected by the individual churches on the basis of one per thirty of its own membership. At this session the delegates elect three officers, namely, a president, a vice-president, and a secretary. The delegate body also elects forty-eight members to four boards whose terms run for nine years but which are staggered so that only about one third of the total are elected at each session. Board members and officers may succeed themselves for one term. Reports are received and general policy decisions are made by the delegate body at its triennial conference.

Officers and board members meet at least annually in what is referred to as a Council of Boards. At these sessions action programs are planned and the annual financial budget is adopted. At this time also the Executive Committee is in session. The Executive Committee is composed of the three conference officers and two board members from each of the four boards, making a total of eleven which next to the delegate body itself determines conference policy.

Two subsidiary corporations, namely, Church Extension Services and Mutual Aid Services, have been set up and incorporated under the statutes of Kansas and deal with specific areas of program work.

A number of institutions such as hospitals, a seminary, and colleges bear a functional relationship to the conference through the various boards. In some instances members of the boards of directors of these institutions are also elected by the delegate body of the conference which establishes a certain amount of control of these institutions on the part of the conference. Those recognized as "General Conference" institutions will be listed under the particular board to which a particular institution relates functionally. If such institution has no functional relationship to a particular board, it will be listed separately. These institutions, however, are not a part of the corporate structure of the General Conference Mennonite Church. They have their own corporate structures as set up under the statutes of the states in which they are located.

DIRECTORY OF CHURCHES

The addresses and telephone numbers listed below are those of the church; if the church has no phone, the number is that of the person listed with the church. The addresses and personal telephone numbers of ministers are found in the Directory of Ministers.

Churches not having a pastor as of July 15, 1967, are indicated by a symbol (#); the person whose name and address appears with these churches is generally the chairman of the Board of Deacons.

DIRECTORY OF MINISTERS

The telephone number listed after the minister's name is his home number. Exceptions are cases where ministers were in the process of moving at the time this directory was in preparation, in which case the church address and telephone number are listed. The address and telephone number of the churches can be found in the Directory of Churches. In Canada, names preceded by a symbol (†) indicate elders.

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Akron, Pa. 17501
Telephone: (717) 859-1151

MENNONITE CENTRAL COMMITTEE is a corporation registered in the state of Pennsylvania. Its primary function is a worldwide relief and service ministry, and its support comes from a number of Mennonite and related groups, one of which is the General Conference Mennonite Church. Four of the board members of said Committee are named by the General Conference Mennonite Church; two by the Board of Christian Service directly; and two by the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Board of Christian Service. Also listed in this section are a number of organizations, some of which have their own corporate status, which are more or less related to the Mennonite Central Committee. The relationship of these to the General Conference Mennonite Church then is primarily functional in nature.
